

Review of Pantomime

The church Pantomime - Aladdin - was entertaining and very, very funny.

The story was about an evil man called Abanazar (played by Peter Beaumont) asking from the Genie of the Ring, all the sweets in the world, a big castle and the hand of the prettiest girl in the world in marriage but the Genie can't grant this because it is beyond her great power. So Abanazar has to find the Genie of the Lamp and only one person has the power to retrieve it-Aladdin (played by Thomas O'Keefe).

I loved the pantomime because it was full to the brim with audience participation. I had an opportunity to see it not only once but twice because my brother played the part of Prince Big Fun, the brother of Princess Jasmine's (played by Ruth Moris). On both days it was a full house and it brought a little Christmas cheer to Advent. Thank you to all who helped make this Pantomime a success.
